

A game of polo by mixed teams of ladies and gentlemen was recently played by Americans and British at Roehampton, England. The Americans won. Photograph shows Prince Henry and Mrs. Glover among those playing for England.

Central News.

The U. S. Mail liner George Washington, largest passenger vessel to fly the American flag. She has just been refitted by the Todd Shipyards Corporation and sails Aug. 3 for Cherbourg, Plymouth and Bremen.

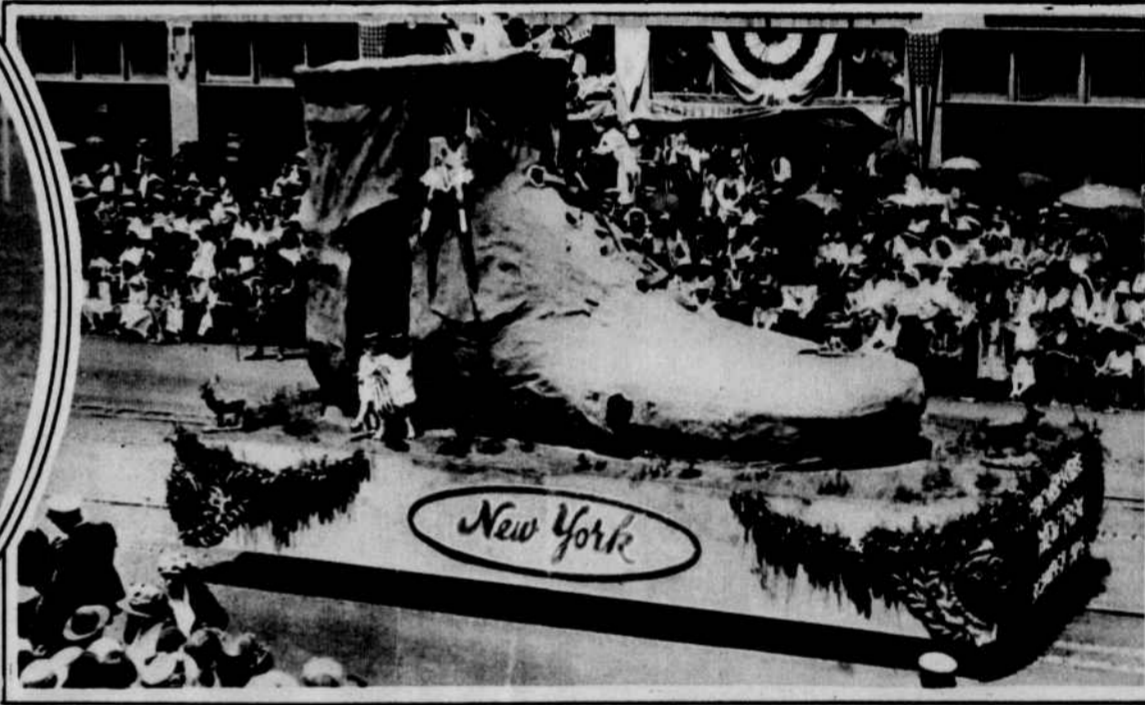

This photograph of the polo match between American and British teams of ladies and gentlemen at Roehampton shows Mrs. Hitchcock, mother of Thomas Hitchcock, hitting the ball.

Central News.

Oscar Muller, who has just been appointed to the difficult position of official German press agent. He has had wide experience in many countries and may be more successful than his predecessors.

Gillham Service.

Above—Float of the New York delegation which attracted much attention in the Elks' annual convention, held in Los Angeles.

International.

Harrison Grey Fiske and Mrs. Minnie Maddern Fiske, at Camp Veery on Echo Island in Big Moose Lake. The Fiskes are resting in the Adirondacks before taking up next season's work.

(c) Ewing Galloway.

Above — Another photograph of Mrs. Hitchcock, dropping a ball in the Ball and Basket race, which also figured in the day's sports. Central News.

At left—Brooklyn delegates to the Elks' convention won applause along the line of march by their novel way of announcing their home port.

Underwood & Underwood.

The new Sea Breeze at Eltingville, Staten Island, which has just been opened, is for the benefit of the mothers and children of New York tenements. It is supported by voluntary contributions. Photo shows a happy bathing party.